veloped weakness today largely as a re-sult of assertions that as low as $150 a bushel had been accepted for wheat in

Bears in the wheat market made much of the fact that receipts at Omaha showed a material increase notwithstanding predictions of late that rural sales would be halted. Besides the enlargement of arrivals, consignment notices at Omaha were also said to have grown heavier. An increase of the visible supply total for the country as a whole was a further handciap to the bulls, and so, too, was some talk of financial difficulties at the seaboard. On the other hand, the market during a short while after the openng displayed an upward tendency connection with advices pointing to a quick ending of the British coal strike.

Buying, however subsided when it appeared that no important new export business was in sight.

Corn and oats paralelled the action of wheat. Liberal receipts of corn here counted as a separate bearish influ Proivsions were depressed by much low er quotations on hogs.
